PRESS STATEMENT: EX POLICE OFFICER CONVICTED FOR DEFILEMENT IN KIAMBU COUNTY

Jacob Conrad Ojiambo, was yesterday, March 20, 2025 convicted for defiling a minor following an investigation by the Independent Policing Oversight Authority.

At the time he committed the beastly act, on April 14, 2019, he was a Sergeant in the Administration Police Service.

IPOA's investigation established, among other pieces of evidence, that Ojiambo grabbed the youngster and frogmarched her to his house, situated at the Administration Police Post at Mitahato, Githunguri in Kiambu County where he committed the crime.

At the time, she was a Standard Eight pupil at a local primary school.

Initially, the defilement was investigated by officers at Githunguri Police Station but IPOA on learning of the matter, took over and conducted an independent investigation.

IPOA's probe found Ojiambo culpable and forwarded the investigation file to the Director of Public Prosecutions who upheld its recommendation to charge, resulting to an arraignment on October 26, 2021 at Githunguri Law Courts.

Yesterday, March 20, 2025, he was found guilty and convicted for the offence of Defilement contrary to Section 8(1) as read with Section 8(3) of the Sexual Offences Act.

He is due for sentencing on April 23, 2025.

IPOA reiterates that members of the National Police Service (NPS) shall discharge their mandate professionally and responsibly in accordance with Article to 244 of the Constitution.

The Authority is independent, fair and impartial in all its investigations.
